Press Release

Lebanon, Ind. (June 11, 2008) Home National Bank, based in Thorntown, has selected C.F. Jones as the general contractor to facilitate building its new bank branch at 2510 N. Lebanon St., directly across from Witham Hospital in Lebanon. This site was chosen for its strategic location and access to both Lebanon St. and 250 North.

The branch is expected to be complete in early 2009. HNB anticipates six employees at the Lebanon branch when it opens. Dan Fry, vice president lending, and Lisa Burgin, teller, will relocate from the bank's Thorntown office to Lebanon.

"The bank's new location will improve the level of service to the Lebanon area," says Jeff W Welty, president and CEO of HNB. "The bank has supported the Lebanon community with our charitable donations for many years. We look forward to this branch making HNB an even more significant partner in the community.
